Example patterns

1)

Using the squares below continue the pattern above. You can do this by: colouring them in, drawing a connecting line or cutting them out.

2)

Using the squares below continue the pattern above. You can do this by: colouring it in, drawing a connecting line or cutting it out.
Example patterns

3) Using the squares below continue the pattern above. You can do this by: colouring them in, drawing a connecting line or cutting them out.

4) Using the squares below continue the pattern above. You can do this by: colouring it in, drawing a connecting line or cutting it out.

Providing skills for tomorrow with BT and Computing at School as part of the Barefoot Computing programme
Challenging patterns

1) Using the squares below continue the pattern above. You can do this by: colouring them in, drawing a connecting line or cutting them out.

   !Pattern

2) Using the squares below continue the pattern above. You can do this by: colouring it in, drawing a connecting line or cutting it out.

   !Pattern
Challenging patterns

3) Shade the squares with numbers 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17.

You can do this by: colouring them in, drawing a connecting line or cutting them out.

4) Complete the pattern with the correct image in the squares.

Using the squares below continue the pattern above.
You can do this by: colouring it in, drawing a connecting line or cutting it out.

Providing skills for tomorrow with BT and Computing at School as part of the Barefoot Computing programme
Pattern cards

first

then

then Pattern cards

then

repeat

Providing skills for tomorrow with BT and Computing at School as part of the Barefoot Computing programme